

Visteon
Chassis Headquarters
Dearborn, Michigan

A three building complex totaling 195,000 s.f. used for the development of automobile chassis components, modules, and systems. The complex also houses Visteon's computer center linking all worldwide facilities together.

